

Liberty, Hardin, Jefferson, and Chambers counties; Liberty the returning county.—James W. Carlton, of Beaumont, Jefferson county, was born in Greensboro, Georgia, in 1814, and is by profession a dentist; was United States Marshal for the Northern District of Georgia under President Fillmore, and has held several city and county offices in his native State; was a member of the Sixth Mississippi Infantry eight months, and at the close of the war moved to Texas, and settled in Titus county, subsequently moved to Jefferson county; was elected as a Democrat, over James Jackson, Democratic nominee, and A. D. Kent, Independent.